

Introducing Cath Vincent

Cath is an expert with over 20 years' experience in communications and change. She is passionate about unleashing a person's hidden potential, and she works with sales teams to get great results through inspiration rather than perspiration.

Cath set up her own business consultancies in the UK, Australia and NZ. She also launched her own software company which won a UK Department of Trade and Industry Award for innovation with its very first product.

Until last year she was living in Perth advising on the communication strategies for multi-million dollar mining and infrastructure projects.

A professional speaker and executive coach, she is also trained in hypnosis!

Here to hypnotise us ... please welcome Cath Vincent...
